Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Member of Paragon Health Capital, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Paragon Health Capital, LLC (the Company) as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes (collectively, the financial statement). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

RSM US LLP

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2019.

Paragon Health Capital, LLC

(A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY)

Notes to Financial Statement

December 31, 2022

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Paragon Health Capital, LLC (the LLC) was established in the state of Delaware on January 14, 2019. It is a registered broker dealer and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA). Although the LLC is not exempt from Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) Rule 15c3-3, it does not directly or indirectly receive, hold or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, does not carry accounts of or for customers and does not carry PAB accounts. The LLC was approved for FINRA and SEC membership and commenced operations on July 11, 2019. The LLC's primary business activity is to facilitate the private placement of securities. The LLC is located in Chicago.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting - The financial statements are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Cash - Cash consists of funds maintained in a checking account held at financial institutions.

Revenue recognition - The LLC's fee income is comprised of private placement fees, which are earned only when capital is raised and closings are effected, in accordance with the terms of the contracts with clients.

Private placement fees may be earned based upon a percentage of funds raised and/or a flat fee.

Revenue for private placement fees is generally recognized at the point in time that performance under the arrangement is completed (the closing date of the transaction). At December 31, 2022, no retainers had been received, and the LLC did not report any deferred revenues. At December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021, the LLC had no contract assets or contract liabilities.

Income taxes - The LLC is wholly owned by Paragon Biosciences, LLC (Member) and is treated as a disregarded entity for tax reporting purposes. No provision for income taxes is recorded since the liability for such taxes is that of the Member rather than the LLC. The Member's income tax returns are subject to examination by the federal and state taxing authorities, and changes, if any, could adjust the individual income tax of the Member. The preceding three years are open to examination.

2. Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Uncertain tax positions - The LLC has adopted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Topic 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes ("Uncertain Tax Position"). This accounting guidance prescribes recognition thresholds that must be met before a tax position is recognized in the financial statements and provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. Under Uncertain Tax Position, an entity may only recognize or continue to recognize tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" threshold. The LLC has evaluated its tax position as of December 31, 2022, and does not expect any material adjustments to be made.

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the LLC to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Related Party Transactions

For the year ended December 31, 2022, the LLC had an expense sharing agreement in place with the Member, Paragon Biosciences, LLC. The agreement permits the allocation of certain shared expenses to the LLC. The balance due to the Member as of December 31, 2022 was $14,097. The shared expenses consist of compensation, professional fees, rent, insurance and other expenses incurred in the normal course of business.

4. Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounting Standards Update 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments requires an entity to measure all expected credit losses for financial assets held at the reporting date based on historical experience, current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts of future economic conditions instead of delaying recognition until the loss was probable of occurring.

The LLC's expected loss allowance methodology for accounts receivable is developed using historical collection experience, current and future economic and market conditions, and a review of the current status of each client's trade accounts receivables. Due to the short-term nature of such receivables, the estimated amount of accounts receivable that may not be collected is based on the aging of the accounts receivable balances and the financial condition of clients. There was no accounts receivable balance at December 31, 2022, and no allowance for doubtful accounts was recorded as of December 31, 2022.

5. Net Capital Requirements

The LLC is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1, or 8 to 1 in the first year of operations. At December 31, 2022, the LLC had net capital of $4,562,503, which was $4,499,297 in excess of its required net capital of the higher of $5,000 or 6.67% of aggregate indebtedness. The LLC's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 21%. The net capital rules may effectively restrict the distribution of equity to the Member.

(A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY)

Notes to Financial Statement

6. Concentrations of Credit Risk

Cash - The LLC maintains principally all cash balances in one financial institution which, at times may exceed the amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The exposure to the LLC is solely dependent upon daily bank balances and the respective strength of the financial institution. The LLC has not incurred any losses on this account. As of December 31, 2022, the amount in excess of insured limits of $250,000 was $5,260,583.

7. Indemnifications

In the normal course of its business, the LLC indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the LLC. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the LLC could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the LLC believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

The LLC provides representations and warranties to counterparties in connection with a variety of commercial transactions and occasionally indemnifies them against potential losses caused by the breach of those representations and warranties. The LLC may also provide standard indemnifications to some counterparties to protect them in the event additional taxes are owed or payments are withheld, due either to a change in or adverse application of certain tax laws. These indemnifications generally are standard contractual terms and are entered into in the normal course of business. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the LLC could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the LLC believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

8. Lease Accounting

The LLC has an expense sharing arrangement with its member, whereby the Member allocates a percentage of the overall rent expense to the LLC based upon occupancy. The LLC does not possess control over the lease terms. As such, the LLC does not have an obligation to record a right to use asset or an offsetting lease obligation in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 842, Leases.

9. Subsequent Events

The LLC has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between January 1, 2023 and January 23, 2023, which is the date the financial statements were issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the financial statements.
